Adam Smith
NEW YORK

Adam Smith Wear is a luxury menswear brand born out of men’s unspoken desire to have more options when it comes to the style and design of their underwear. This need was filled by a number of collections, continuously expanded and updated.

The diversity of all collections is a result of many years of extensive research and interviewing of hundreds of men to find out what they love and hate about their underwear. Each and every one of our lines was entirely designed and tailored to fit the lifestyle of all men from all walks of life with a fine taste for the best that life has to offer.
